

N.L. - Riverside Beach + Park.

Ev. 1. No. 4.

The New London Da

EVENING

NEW LONDON, CONN., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MAY

New Footbridge at Riverside Park ¹⁹⁴⁰

May 16/40

The new footbridge over the Central Vermont railroad tracks at Riverside park which will permit bathers at the Riverside beach to cross the tracks in safety. To take advantage of the terrain the bridge was located somewhat north of the bathing beach and Riverside wharf. The park side is a little north of a new bathhouse being completed in the park. The work was done by Zaist Brothers of Colchester.